A new House Printing Telegraph line is, we understand, te be built this fall from Troy to Montreal, via Saratoga Springs, which, when completed, will make the fifth telegraph line leading from this city by different routes treal and Quebec. The line is to be constructed under the superintendence of Mr. J. S. Thompson, which is a good guaranty for its excellence.

House line is also nearly completed between Bisabethport, N. J., and Easton, Fa., on the line of the Central Railroad. Mr. W. W. Alexander, who recently, and for several years past, has occupied a prominent position on the House Southern line, has been appointed superintendent of the operating department on the line, than whom no more competent or faithful man could be York office of the Magnetic line, has been promoted to the superintendency of the Union line to Boston. Should Mr. W discharge his duties in his present position as faithfully and satisfactural? As he six in his former position on the Magnetic line, the public will have much reason to feel satisfied.

Mr. Joseph Beach succeeds Mr. Wood as chief operator on the Magnetic line, and is a gentleman eminently qualified for the position.

The House Printing Telegraph line to Boston is being rebuilt, and the company are making every exertion in their power to accommodate the rapidly iscreasing demand for the use of their wires. The business of this line, we understand, has increased over fourfold within the last year.

Mr. F. O. J. Smith has recently disposed of all his lines—embracing nearly three hundred miles—east of Boston, to the Maine Telegraph Company. We understand that the company propose to rebuild the line between Boston and Portland, which will greatly facilitate the despatch of messages to and from Mains and the lower British Provinces. The Maine line, (the only one leading to the Provinces) has taken an office at Boston, in connection with the House Boston and New York Printing Telegraph Company, whose office in this city is at 21 Wall street.

Police Intelligence.

A Woman Stotle in an Affray.—A man of respectable appearance mamed James Hoare, was arrested on Wednesday night by officer Knowles. 4 the Fourin ward, charged wise analysing a female, named Sasan McInerny, is the nect with a bayonet pistol, inflicting a severe wound, and nearly avering the jugular vein. The affait took place on Wednesday evening, at a porter-house near the corner of James and Cherry streets. The parties had been living together, and the prisoner had become jealous of the conduct of the woman towards another man. They met in the porter-house, and he accused her of this. She became highly indignant, and soon both got very angry, and Hoare drew the weapon and inflicted the injury. She was immediately taken to the New York Hospital, where her wounds were dressed. Hoare was locked up by Justice Osborn, to await the result of the injuries.

Compromising a Felony.—Officer Moore, of the Second district police court, yesterday, brought to the city John G. Ostrom, justice of the peace, and Conrad Marguedart, constable of the town of Rhinebeck, Dutchess county, N.Y. whom he had arrested on a warrant issued by Justice McGrath, in which they stand charged, on complaint of Michael Mulvey, of this city, with compromising a felony, It appears from the affidavit on file, that in February last a constable of Rhinebeck had a warrant for the arrest of a party living in this city, and that the accused brought about a settlement between the complainant and defendant, and the orner then refused to prosesute. The charge was perjury, and this procuring a settlement is alleged to be illegal, and hence arises the complaint for compounding a felony. The accused will have an examination on Puseday next.

Suppicious Characters.—Two notorious characters, named, Robert Simpson and David Hunter, were yesteday arrested with a quantity of men's wearing apparel in their possession, which is believed to be the proceeds of a burglary committed by them. They were locked up by Justice Osborn to await examination Clear.
